Welcome to Team Ashley!

I was ten years old when my parents made the decision that would shape my future—they chose Hoover. They carefully researched schools, neighborhoods, and opportunities, believing Hoover would give my sister and me the best foundation for success. That decision gave me more than an education; it gave me a home, a community, and the values that guide me to this day.

Fast Facts about Hoover City Council Elections

- Election Day is Tuesday, August 26th. Make plans to vote NOW!
- The Council consists of seven at-large members who represent the entire city.
- Being elected at large means every registered voter in Hoover can vote for all the council seats on the ballot. The candidates who receive the most votes win the available position.
- Why are at large elections such a big deal? Every voter has a say in electing all seven members.
- The Council serves as the legislative body for the city.
- Hoover City Council elections are held every four years.
- Council members serve four-year terms, and there are no term limits.
- The mayor is also elected on the same four-year cycle as the council.

I grew up walking the halls of Rocky Ridge Elementary, Berry Middle, and Spain Park High School. I learned the power of teamwork on the basketball court under coaches like Kelly Holland and Gina Morris, who taught me that success isn't just about talent—it's about grit, preparation, and stepping up when called.

It's people like you and me who make Hoover what it is. We believe in Hoover not just as a place, but as a promise. A promise of excellent schools, strong neighborhoods, and a community where people look out for each other.

We are the parents cheering on the sidelines, the small business owners investing in our local economy, the educators shaping future generations, and the neighbors who step up when someone is in need. We worship together, work together, and build our lives here—because Hoover isn't just where we live; it's who we are.

A vote for me is a vote for Hoover.
